Information Technology Liability Insurance Policy

For Information Technology Entities

NOTICES

Introduction

This Policy is a legal contract between the Insured and the Insurer. The Insured has paid, or agreed to pay, the Insurer the required Premium and the Insurer will provide indemnity as specified in this Policy and as set out in the Policy Schedule. It is essential that the Insured:

- i. reads all of the Policy terms and conditions before they purchase it to ensure that this Policy provides them the protection they require;
- ii. is aware of the Limits of Indemnity provided and the amounts the Insurer will pay (including any Deductible that applies) noting that some of these will be stated in the Policy itself (these are our standard policy limits) and the remainder will be stated in the Policy Schedule;
- iii. is aware of the Definitions of this Policy.

The Insured must comply with all provisions of this Policy, otherwise the Insurer may be entitled to refuse to pay a Claim or reduce its liability under this Policy. This Policy is in force for the Period of Insurance set out in the Policy Schedule or until cancelled.

Duty of Disclosure Notice

This Policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. Under that Act the Insured has a duty of disclosure. Before the Insured enters into a contract of insurance they have a duty to tell the Insurer everything that the Insured knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the Insurer's decision to provide this Policy. If the Insured is not sure whether something is relevant they should inform the Insurer anyway. The Insured has the same duty to inform the Insurer of those matters before they renew, extend, vary, or reinstate this Policy.

The Insured's duty however does not require disclosure of matters that:

- reduce the risk;
- are common knowledge;
- the Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of business, should know; or
- the Insurer has indicated they do not want to know.

If the Insured does not comply with their duty of disclosure obligations, the Insurer may be entitled to:

- reduce their liability for any claim;
- cancel this Policy;
- refuse to pay a claim;
- avoid this Policy from its beginning, if the Insured's non-disclosure was fraudulent.

Claims Made Notice

Section 1 (Professional Indemnity) of this policy operates on a claims made and notified basis. This means that this section covers the Insured for claims made against them and notified to the Insurer during the Period of Insurance.

Section 2 (Public and Products Liability) of this policy operates on an occurrence basis.
